

A background image of a railway yard with multiple tracks, overhead power lines, and signal masts. A signal mast with a red light and a sign reading 'G 86' is visible in the upper right. The text is overlaid on this image.

RAILWAY INDUSTRY

TRAIN PLANNING TRAINING

LEVEL 2

STUDENT WORKBOOK

THIS BOOK BELONGS TO

CONTENTS

- Cover (This Page)
- Module 1 - Administration
- Module 2 – What is Operational Planning
- Module 3 - Signalling
- Module 4 – Core Skills
- Module 4 – (Sectional Appendix)
- Module 5A - Operail
- Module 5B - (Annex – Separate handout and NOT part of this book)
- Module 5C - (Timetable Planning Rules)
- Module 6 – Informed Traveller
- Module 7 – (Engineering Overview)
- Module 7 - (Engineering Access Statement)
- Module 8 – Tools and Processes
- Module 9 – Role of the TOC
- Module 10A – Freight
- Module 10B – Freight Annex
- Module 11 – Jargon Buster

Document History:

Original Version June 2005 (Updated October 2007)
Completely revised May 2009 (Updated October 2009 and July 2011)